

Dr. Cummings, Chancellor elect for the University of North Carolina at Pembroke, was the honored guest speaker during the June 5th meeting of the NC Commission of Indian Affairs.

Dr. Cummings a former member of the NC Commission of Indian Affairs and Chairman of the Commission's first Indian Health Initiative, was recognized for his work and dedication, during his tenure on the Commission.

Dr. Cummings, is a member of the Lumbee Indian Tribe and a graduate of the University of North Carolina at Pembroke. He is a retired cardiologist and served most recently as Deputy Secretary of the NC Department of Health and Human Services, in Raleigh, prior to being selected as Chancellor elect of the University of North Carolina at Pembroke.

The Commission meeting was held at the North Carolina Association of Educators Building, 700 South Salisbury Street, Raleigh, NC 27601 and Dr. Cummings was the honored guest speaker.